

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय

MESSAGE FOR STUDENTS

Dear Students,

We wish you all good health and safety in your home or wherever you are staying. It is the time to take necessary precautions as Covid-19's second wave is creating a grave situation in the country. This time, the severity and intensity of pandemic is causing immense distress and disruption to the whole society.

You, the student community of the Delhi University you need not panic. Now is the time to be united and face the situation carefully. You have to remain strong yourselves to serve the society and the nation as a whole. The Delhi University Administration will absolutely ensure that all your academic year, examinations and other related activities will be taken care of to the maximum. We are concerned about you and your career. Therefore, we request you all to please stay safe with adequate care and precautions.

As a young generation, you have also certain responsibilities towards the society. We are confident that you, the Students of Delhi University, can help the society in the best possible manner (Sewa karya) like creating awareness, Plasma donation, grocery distribution, taking care of children and elders etc.

We wish you all the best for following.

“Service to mankind, Service to GOD”

Regards,

Shri
